

Riverside Public Library Presents

Iqbal Pittalwala

A storyteller recounting the lives of contemporary South Asians. His just-published first novel is entitled Dear Paramount Pictures internationally-known poet, essayist, critic and children's book author.

Donald Hall

Among his works are The Painted Bed, The One Day, Without and Oxcart Man

Diana

Garcia

Novelist and poet whose work, including When Living was a Labor Camp and Aviso Oportuno, examines life on the margins

Outstanding Authors @ Your Library

This special authors' event is made possible through the generosity of the Friends of the Riverside Public Library and University of California, Riverside Writers' Week, which is presented through the Department of Creative Writing.

Saturday,
Feb. 8 at 3:00 pm @
the Main Library,
3581 Mission
Inn Avenue
in Riverside.

(909) 826-5369

Cultural Arts Program

Riverside Public Library

Riverside Public
Library presents

Spring 2003 Authors Events

3:00 pm in the Main
Library Auditorium,
3581 Mission Inn
Ave. in Riverside.

All Events are free!

Please call (909)
826-5369 for more information

Juan Delgado

Saturday,
March 22nd

Saturday,
May 3rd

Gayle Brandeis

Educator and poet Juan Delgado will be presenting a sneak preview of his soon-to-be published book of poems, A Rush of Hands.

Gayle Brandeis will read and discuss her just published novel The Book of Dead Birds, the winner of the 2002 Bellwether Prize.

The Riverside
Public Library's
Spring 2003 Authors
Events and the accompanying high school workshops are made possible through the generosity of the Friends of the Riverside Library,

Abraham Lincoln Continuation
High School, John W. North High School, and Poets and Writers, Inc.
though a grant it has received from the James Irvine Foundation

Cultural Arts Program

Riverside Public Library